

Workshop with Catherine Gill

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, November 8-10, 2018 9:00am – 12:30pm and 1:30pm – 4:00pm

Catherine Gill is a very accomplished watercolor artist who teaches usually from her studio in the Pacific North-West. Her artwork has been exhibited nationally and around the world. Gill’s work has appeared in galleries and museums throughout the West Coast, New York, Canada and Japan, and she has received numerous awards. She also published an excellent instructional book “Powerful Watercolor Landscapes”.

“I prefer to work wet-in-wet for most of the painting, keeping edges soft, positives and negatives connected, and working light to dark. This method lets me paint in a simple and free way, working all over the surface, allowing me to bring the painting to a focus over a period of time. Midway through, I will let it dry, and then introduce some hard edges and fine tune it.” – Catherine Gill. Location: St. John Episcopal Church, 297 Lowell St, Newton
