

Join us at our 1st Newton PAINT-OUT

on Saturday, May 19 2018

(Rain date: May 20)

10am -2pm

Location: The Runner's statue (Johnny Kelley's Statue)
at the intersection of
Commonwealth Ave and Walnut St, Newton
(close to Newton City Hall and Bullough Pond)

Let's paint together outdoors!

Here is the schedule:

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 10am | Short intro talk about how to start your outdoor watercolor painting |
| 10am – 1pm | Receive your free watercolor paper samples, pick a spot you like and paint
(Bring your easels and/or chairs and your art supplies) |
| 10am – 1pm | Experienced artists strolling around and offering advice where it is desired |
| 1pm – 2pm | Feedback of your painting(s) at the blue NWS canopy |
| 1:45 – 2pm | Raffle drawing and gift certificate awards for beginner, intermediate and expert paintings, sponsored by Big Picture Framing, Newton |

Coffee and delicious sweets from our bake sale are available for purchase

Free watercolor samples: Arches Hot Press, Rough, Cold Press, Fabriano Cold Press, Fabriano Rough Grain, Fabriano Watercolor Postcard, Saunders Rough, Yupo and others
(as long as supplies last)

For beginners to watercolor painting we also have sets with three high-quality paints on hand
All participating painters will receive a voucher for same-day-only 10% off at several participating restaurants in Newton (sponsored by Newton Cultural Alliance).

Newton Watercolor Society

www.newtonwatercolorsociety.org

